

Christina F. Kolas

ENGLISH DOCTORAL STUDENT | GRADUATE EMBEDDED TUTOR | SOCIAL MEDIA LIAISON | SUBSTITUTE TEACHER | GRADUATE PEER MENTOR

xxx-xxx-xxxx

christina.kolias@cgu.edu

150 E 10th St, Claremont, CA 91711

<https://www.christinafkolas.com>

EDUCATION

2020-Present

Claremont Graduate University,
Doctor of Philosophy in English, Early
Modern Studies Concentration,
Blaisdell and English Department
Fellow

2018-2020

CSU Fullerton, Master of Arts Degree
in English, Magna Cum Laude, Master's Project: "By my troth, I am sick': Typologies of Lovesickness In Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew, Troilus and Cressida, and Much Ado About Nothing,"
Project Advisor: Dr. Kay Stanton

2014-2018

CSU Fullerton, Bachelor of Arts
Degree in English, Magna Cum Laude

CERTIFICATIONS

Issued May 2022

Women's and Gender Studies
Certificate, Claremont Graduate
University

Issued May 2022

Preparing Future Faculty (PFF)
Certificate in College Teaching,
Claremont Graduate University

CURRENT APPOINTMENTS

March 2023 - Present

Embedded Tutor, Peer Assistants for Learning Program (PAL)
Chaffey College

I am embedded as a near-peer mentor, or PAL, in a Fast Track 2 Engl-1A course. As a PAL, I attend class with the students, as well as provide several hours of tutoring and group sessions for students every week to support the students' learning in class.

July 2022 - Present

Graduate Embedded Tutor (G.E.T)
Glendale Community College

I function as a dedicated classroom-based tutor for English 101+: Introduction to College Reading and Composition, where I am supervised by Elizabeth Bryer. As an embedded tutor, I am seamlessly woven into the course, providing just-in-time support in the form of tutoring and empowering mentorship, particularly serving disproportionately impacted students as part of the Institutional Effectiveness Partnership Initiative.

May 2022 - Present

Social Media Liaison
Renaissance Conference of Southern California (RCSC)

I manage RCSC's social media accounts across Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, and Facebook. I create unique content to promote RCSC's annual conference and various community-based events dedicated to the advancement of learning in Renaissance Studies.

August 2021 - Present

IGNITE Peer Mentor
Claremont Graduate University

I serve as a mentor for two first-year graduate students through Claremont Graduate University's IGNITE Mentorship program, which focuses on helping first-year students transition to graduate life from historically marginalized communities.

September 2019 -Present

Substitute Teacher
Corona Norco Unified School District

As a Substitute Teacher for K-12 education, I am responsible for fostering a productive and safe classroom culture. I adhere to lesson plans and curriculum left by the regular instructor, while following school policies and procedures.